GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following papers :—

G.O., No. 504, Financial, dated 22nd August 1896.

ABSTRACT.—Issuing orders regarding the supply of books, periodicals and newspapers to the officers of the Madras Command.

G.O., R. No. 1249, Financial, dated 5th November 1896.

ABSTRACT.—Ordering that 12 instead of 7 copies of Neville Priestley's Route and Distance Tables should be supplied to the Principal Medical officers, and enquiring whether the supply of the 30 copies of the Indian Medical Gazette to the Principal Medical officer, Madras Command, had actually been discontinued.

G.O., R. No. 1302, Financial, dated 17th November 1896.

ABSTRACT.—Discontinuing the supply of the Asylum Press Almanac to the Inspector-General of Ordnance and the War Office Monthly and Quarterly Army Lists, the London Gazette and the British Postal Guide to the Controller, Military Accounts.

G.O., R. No. 1344, Financial, dated 30th November 1896.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to the Accountant-General letter from the Deputy Adjutant-General stating that the supply of the Indian Medical Gazette had been discontinued from the 1st January 1896.

G.O., R. No. 24, Financial, dated 6th January 1897.

ABSTRACT.—Discontinuing the supply of Neville Priestley's Route and Distance Tables to the Principal Medical officers.

G.O., R. No. 649, Financial, dated 19th May 1897.

ABSTRACT.—Ordering that 15 instead of 11 copies of the War Office Monthly Army List should be supplied to the Deputy Adjutant-General.

G.O., R. No. 1303, Financial, dated 24th September 1897.

Read—the following letter from Brigadier-General G. SIMPSON, Deputy Adjutant General, to the Chief Secretary to Government (through the Controller of Military Accounts, Madras Command), dated Ootacamund, 23rd August 1897, No. A.—C. R.-13061.

I have the honour to forward herewith copy of a letter * from the Adjutant-General in India stating the procedure to be followed in procuring books and periodicals required for the Madras Command Head-quarters offices from the sanctioned annual allotment of Rs. 800 and with reference thereto to request that instructions may be issued to Messrs. Baker & Co. and other publishers concerned that the supply of all books and periodicals (including the copy of the Madras Mail) at present made under the orders of the Madras Government, may continue only up to the 31st March 1898 after which date the orders of the Superintendent of Stationery should be complied with.

*No. 3059-C of 3rd August 1897.

2. I shall feel obliged if you will inform me of the action taken in view to my placing myself in communication with the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, as to the books, &c., required and the procedure to be adopted in payment of bills.

3. It is requested however that the copy of the Overland Mail, which is supplied to His Excellency the Lieutenant-General Commanding through you and the cost of which is apparently not included in the sanctioned grant, may continue to be supplied as heretofore.

4. The Commissary-General, Madras Command, who has a separate allotment sanctioned for the purchase of books, &c., for his department, has, under the orders of the Commissary-General-in-Chief, submitted his indent for books for inclusion in that of the Command Head-quarters offices. As it is considered desirable that he also should obtain his requirements direct from the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, I am communicating with that officer and the result will be communicated to you in view to your discontinuing the publications now supplied to the Commissary-General.

ENCLOSURE.

From Major-General G. deC. MORTON, Adjutant-General in India, to His Excellency the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, Madras (through the Controller of Military Accounts, Madras Command), dated Simla, 3rd August 1897, No. 3059 C.

With reference to your Excellency's letter, No. A.—C.R. 6556, "Books", dated 26th April 1897, transmitted to this office under endorsement, No. 1467, dated 4th June 1897, from Controller of Military Accounts, Madras Command, I have the honour, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief in India, to state that the books and periodicals required for the Madras Command Head-quarters offices should be obtained on indent through the Superintendent of Stationery, and to remark that the procedure followed with regard to the books, &c., supplied to Army Head-quarters, which are obtained through the Superintendent of Stationery, Calcutta, is that the bills are countersigned by the Superintendent of Stationery for payment on presentation at the office of the Accountant-General, Bengal, who adjusts the charge by book debit.

Forwarded.

MADRAS, 4th September 1897. (Signed) G. W. SAWYER, Lieut.-Colonel, Controller of Military Accounts.

To the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Order—R. No. 1303, Financial, dated 24th September 1897.

The Deputy Adjutant-General will be informed that the Financial Department and not the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, undertakes in this Presidency the duty of procuring periodicals.

2. As it is probable that the Adjutant-General in India intends that the Superintendent of Stationery, Calcutta, to whom this duty has been entrusted by the Government of India, should also arrange for the supply of publications to officers of the Madras Command, a further communication from the Deputy Adjutant-General will be awaited.

G.O., No. 832, Financial, dated 6th October 1897.

Abstract.—Ordering that one copy of the Overland Mail should in future be addressed to the Assistant Military Secretary to the Lieutenant-General Commanding and the other as usual to the Chief Secretary.

G.O., Mis. No. 862, Financial, dated 15th October 1897.

Read—the following papers:—

From the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Commissary-General-in-Chief, dated Fort William, 15th September 1897, No. 1574-G.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 4090, dated the 22nd July 1897, submitting for orders the question whether the requirements of Commissaries-General of Commands for books, periodicals, &c., should be incorporated in the indents forwarded by Command offices or in those submitted by your office.

2. In reply, I am to state that as the Commissariat Department is an Imperial Department under the Government of India, and as each Command has a separate allotment of funds for books, &c., in which the Commissariat Department is not included, the requirements of Commissaries-General of Commands for books, periodicals, &c., cannot be incorporated in the indents of the Command offices as proposed. For these and other reasons it is not considered desirable to change the present procedure in accordance with which the requirement of the entire department under your orders should as hitherto be included in indents submitted by you.

Copy of the above forwarded for information to the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, Madras.

No. A—C. R. 15472.

Forwarded for information with reference to paragraph 4 of my letter, No. A—C.R. 13061, dated 23rd August 1897.

(Signed) G. SIMPSON, Brigdr.-General,
30*th September* 1897. Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command.

To the Chief Secretary to Government.

From Brigadier-General G. SIMPSON, Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ootacamund, 2nd October 1897, No. A—C.R. 15623.

With reference to G.O., R. No. 1303, Financial, dated 24th September 1897, I have the honour to forward herewith an extract * from letter, No. A—C. R. 6556, dated 26th April 1897, to which, letter No. 3059 C., dated 3rd August 1897, from the Adjutant-General in India, is a reply.

* Paragraphs 1 and 3.

2. From this it will be seen that the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, was meant by the Adjutant-General in India, and not the Superintendent of Stationery, Calcutta.

Enclosure.

Extract from letter, No. A—C.R. 6556, dated 26th April 1897, from the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, Madras, to the Adjutant-General in India.

With reference to the first entry in the "Notes on the Simla Procedure Pamphlets," forwarded with your letter, No. 852-C., dated 20th February 1897, on the subject of the grant of Rs. 800 allotted for the purchase of books and periodicals for the Head-quarters offices of the Madras Command, I have the honour to request the favour of being informed as to whether it is to be understood that this grant for the Madras Command is to be in the hands of the Superintendent of Stationery as I am still of opinion that this is the best course to adopt.

* * * * *

3. For the above reasons I would advocate that the budget allotment under this head for this Command should be in the hands of the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, and that any books and periodicals required for the Head-quarters offices be obtained by me through that department as thus a regular account for such payments can be maintained.

Order—Mis. No. 862, Financial, dated 15th October 1897.

The attention of the Deputy Adjutant-General will be drawn to G.O., No. 864, Financial, dated 20th November 1888 (G.O., No. 8309, Military, dated 10th December 1888), from which it will be seen that the question of entrusting the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, with the duty of procuring newspapers and periodicals required for public offices has already been considered by Government. The duties performed by that officer do not admit of any additional work being assigned to him.

2. The Deputy Adjutant-General will be requested to state whether it is still intended that the present arrangements for the supply of periodicals to officers of the Madras Command should cease from the 31st March 1898.

Read—the following papers:—

From Brigadier-General G. SIMPSON, Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ootacamund, 8th October 1897, No. A—C.R. 15899.

I have the honour, by desire of His Excellency the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, to request you will be so good as to authorize the purchase of the following books out of the Rs. 800 allotted for the purchase of books and periodicals for the Madras Command for the year 1897–98:—

(i) "Précis of Modern Tactics" compiled by Colonel R. Home, C.B., R.E., and revised and re-written by Lieutenant-Colonel Sisson C. Pratt, R.A., price Rs. 3.
(ii) Gall's Tactics, 2 Volumes, price Rs. 21.

2. The above can be obtained from Messrs. Thacker & Co., Bombay.

3. The favour of an early reply is requested.

From Brigadier-General G. SIMPSON, Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Ootacamund, 26th October 1897, No. A—C.R. 16992.

With reference to your telephone message of the 18th instant, I have the honour to invite your attention to the Government of India, Military Department, telegram No. 391-G., dated 3rd April 1895, a copy of which was forwarded to you with my letter, No. C.R. 1791 of the 6th idem, from which it would appear that all indents for books and periodicals are to be submitted to the local Government, Financial Department.

2. I would further point out that on several occasions * applications were submitted to you for authority to purchase publications which were complied † with as will be seen from the correspondence noted below :—
