THE HINDU OFFICE,
MOUNT ROAD,

Madras, 27. January. 1897.

Dear Sir

The Madras Standard of the 21st instant publishes certain Government papers on the Famine Policy, including certain proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 15th December 1896. In these proceedings the Board contains certain opinions expressed by the Government. The whole record is interesting & will be read with some satisfaction by the public. I understood that the Board's proceedings have not been placed at the disposal of the Press, and so the Hindu alwaysaverse to means which are not fair, has not been able to publish these proceedings. Neither the Mail nor the Times published

From I think. Now that the Standard has published them, there is no reason why honest journals should be placed at a disadvantage.
Will you do me the favour of sending me a copy of the proceedings I refer to.

I shall also thank you for such papers as you can conveniently place at my disposal, regarding the terms of the new financial contract between the Madras Government and the Government of India, more especially regarding the matter which the Madras Mail referred to in a recent issue under the heading
"Expediting Madras."

Yours very truly

Ch. Brahmaiah Esq.
