We have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter 9447 Misc. dated 24th instant, and in reply to info you that we wish the cloths in question delivered to Messr Binny & Co's Agent at Tadpatri.

We have the honor to enquire whether we may depo the value with you, as it is possible that the dealers wi take delivery from us gradually in small quantities.

Read also the following letter from Messrs. Bin & Co. dated 1st December 1897:-

With reference to Famine Cloths we understand t the rates will be decided in Madras and that you will give delivery orders on Collectors by letter or by wire.

As it will be very inconvenient to us to pay proc ceed up country, we request you will be good enough to a arrange with the Accountant-General for us to pay in value goods sold to credit of the Famine Commissioner with the Bra of Madras in Madras. If these payments could be made after our agent has obtained delivery of the goods it would fa facilitate accounts and obviate petty adjustments. We shoul then simply pay in the amount of Collector's debit notes o bills when presented to us. If this could not be allowed w should of course be quite prepared to pay in the amounts in advance or to lodge Government Paper as Security.
