G.O., No. 1060, Revenue, dated 17th December 1897.

Read—the following paper :—

From the Editor of the District Manuals, dated 8th December 1897, No. 826, submitting his budget estimate for 1898-99.

Telegram from the Editor of the District Manuals, Ootacamund, dated 13th December 1897, stating that the provision for the establishment should be Rs. 510 and 360, respectively.

Order—No. 1060, Revenue, dated 17th December 1897.

As it appears that the head clerk on Rs. 150 was transferred to the Land Revenue Department of the Board's office on 1st March 1897, no portion of his pay can be debited in the current year to "District Manuals." The allotment against establishments in the revised estimates for the current year will therefore be reduced to Rupees 360 and the necessary alterations made in the column of "number" in the detailed head.

2. The budget estimates as altered above will be transferred to the Financial Department for sanction.

Note.—The actuals of 1896-97 have been verified with the Accountant-General's figures and are found to tally with them.

Telegram from the Editor of the District Manuals, Ootacamund, dated 13th December 1897, stating that the provision for the establishment should be Rs. 510 and 360, respectively.

Order—No. 1060, Revenue, dated 17th December 1897.

As it appears that the head clerk on Rs. 150 was transferred to the Land Revenue Department of the Board's office on 1st March 1897, no portion of his pay can be debited in the current year to "District Manuals." The allotment against establishments in the revised estimates for the current year will therefore be reduced to Rupees 360 and the necessary alterations made in the column of "number" in the detailed head.

2. The budget estimates as altered above will be transferred to the Financial Department for sanction.
