GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE DEPARTMENT.

Calcutta, the 17th February 1897.

To
The Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Sir,
I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. 117, dated February 6th, 1897, enclosing a communication from the Chairman of the Madras Chamber of Commerce on the subject of the settlement relating to Provincial Revenue and Expenditure in Madras for the five years beginning with 1897-98. The Chamber appear to be misinformed as to the proceeding they allude to, and I am to request that they may be informed that no proposal has been made to levy a famine contribution upon Madras. I am desired also to say that the quinquennial settlement of the Imperial assignment to Madras is a matter of estimating, closely akin to the annual preparation of the Budget estimates, and that it is no more possible in the case of the settlement in question, than in the case of the preparation of the Budget Estimates, to submit the figures for preliminary

The Chamber's object is to secure a contribution from Madras to defray the cost of the famine relief works in the other provinces.

preliminary discussion by the public.

The Government of India will deal with the general observations of the Chamber when they again address the Government of Madras on the subject of the provincial settlement.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

W. A. Murray
Secretary to the Govt. of India.

Resolution

It will be observed from para 4 of Government Order No 334, Financial, dated 14th May 1896 and paras 1 and 3 of Government Order No 644 Financial, dated 29th September 1896 that the security to be furnished by public servants should be cash (including Bank of Madras Receipts) or its equivalent in promissory notes or Savings Bank deposits and that only chroffs drawing Rs 20 and less are permitted to furnish security in the form most convenient to them as decided in Government Order No 2929 Financial dated 22nd December 1893. The Collector of Madras is requested to report how under these orders he accepted as security from the Stamp Vendor, Small Cause Court, immovable property of the value of Rs 5000.

If his case is deserving of special consideration the sanction of Government should be obtained.

Read also the following letter from the Collector of Madras Ref: No 1030
G.B., dated 11th January 1897.

According to Board's Proceedings No 5214 (S.R) dated the 14th December last, I have the honour to state that immovable property was accepted as security in the case of the Stamp Vendor in question under the impression that para 5 of the Government Order No 334 dated 14th with reference to this office Ref No 3658 dated 28th October 1895 to the Board received in the Board's Mts No 4820 (S.R.) dated <sup>Promoted to</sup> 11th November 1895. As the Board <sup>to final dept in</sup> is of opinion that the special <sup>R.O. 1469</sup> sanction of Government should be <sup>8-4-96</sup> obtained for its acceptance <sup>for 334 mil</sup> as security I beg to strongly <sup>14/5/96</sup> recommend that this sanction may be obtained as his case is.

 I submit, one deserving of special consideration for the reasons stated in my letter No 3658 D dated

dated 28th October 1895-above quoted His monthly salary is only Rs 75 and as it does not appear that he possesses so large a sum as Rs 5000, he will have to borrow it from others at interest of at least 9 per cent per annum. This amounts to Rs 37-8-0 per annum which added to Rs 32, the monthly cost of the Establishment he has to maintain as stated in the above quoted letter aggregates to Rs 69-8-0 against his monthly salary of Rs 75 resulting in a monthly net saving of only Rs 5-8-0 and the appointment will thus be practically worth nothing.
 He has been a salaried vendor for over 21 years and has all along done his work satisfactorily and maintained his character.

he will get  $\frac{1}{3}$  of this - being interest at 3 percent

J.

I submit that he richly deserves the concession now applied for."

Resolution

Submitted to Govt. Government with the request, that under the circumstances represented by the Collector of Madras. in his letter read above, the security offered by the Stamp-Vender, Small Cause Court Madras, in the shape of immovable property, may be accepted as a special case as he has discharged his duties satisfactorily for the past 21 years and strict compliance with the present order will be equivalent to a very serious annual fine on him.
