Office of the Inspector of

Dated 9th January 1897

From

Mr. C. V. Dabrymple-Hay
Inspector of Salt, Abxari, and Customs Department
South Trichinopoly Circle

To

The Right Honourable
The Governor in Council Madras

Through the proper channel
May it please your Excellency

The humble memorial of Charles Vernon Dabrymple-Hay,
Inspector of Salt, Abxari, and Customs Department most respectfully sheweth:—

That your Excellency's petitioner is the second son of the late Colonel Dabrymple-Hay Bengal Staff Corps and Grand-Son of Sir James Dabrymple-Hay Baronet of Park Wigtonshire. Your Excellency's petitioner's father came to India in the year 1847 and served in the 8th Bengal Cavalry which service was transferred to the Crown after the Indian Mutiny, and he continued serving the Crown till 1881 when he died at Poona, where he was Comptroller of Military accounts, and it was his intention to retire in England where he spent all his furlough, and where he was born and educated.

Your Excellency's petitioner was born in India and as a young child went to England, where he received his entire education and came out to India in 1878 with a nomination for an appointment in the Punjab Police, and was duly appointed as assistant Superintendent. This appointment the petitioner held till 1882. when on the return of the permanent incumbent the acting appointment terminated, and the petitioner was provided with an appointment in his present department, in which he has served to date, and during which time he has been to England for 20 months on furlough, and intends not only to spend all his long leave in England, but to finally retire in that Country.

Your Excellency's petitioner's claim that his domicile is not of this Country appears further strengthened by the fact that his parents came from England, where your Excellency's petitioner's mother returned immediately after the death of her husband, and where she is up to this time in receipt of a Colonel's widow's pension.

Your Excellency's petitioner therefore submits this as a memorial praying to be allowed to draw Exchange Compensation Allowance.

The humble memorialist shall as in duty bound ever pray.

Your Excellency's most obedient and humble Memorialist
