GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following letter from H. BEAUCHAMP, Esq., Honorary Indian Famine Charitable Relief Fund, Madras Branch, to the Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 15th March 1897.

The executive committee of the above fund request me to ask whether the Government would kindly permit the printing at District Presses, free of cost, of all forms of accounts, &c., connected with the collection and distribution of funds by various District Committees. The amount of work required will not be far apart from the saving thus effected, the convenience—especially in those places where private presses do not exist or are inefficient—will be very considerable.

ORDER—No. 197, Revenue, dated 24th March 1897.

Miscellaneous.

The Board of Revenue will direct the District Collectors to allow the circulation of accounts to be printed at the District Presses free of cost.
