Simpson was clearly told of the amt Mr Simpson has drawn in his retired Irish pension the money from the Exchequer Compensation. I don't see that Mr Simpson is to blame for the part he has taken in this matter. I have only reported the facts as they are. Mr. Coe was the Counsel who pleaded which Mr. Coe has acted in exactly the contrary way to what they did - no money therefore was made from Mr. Simpson

THE

F. C. Harrison Esqre,

ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

Chief Secretary to Government,
Judicial Department.

SIR,

Sir,

I have the honour to submit for the orders of Government two letters (in original to be returned) from the Commissioner of Police, Madras Nos 306 and 318 dated 5th and 8th March 1897 respectively, in which he states that Mr. J. D. Simpson, Deputy Commissioner of Police is not entitled to Exchange Compensation which he has been drawing since the allowance was first sanctioned. Prior to the receipt of these letters Mr. Simpson was paid on 1st March/97 his pay and Exchange Compensation allowance upto 6 March '97, the date preceding that on which he sailed for Europe on furlough and this office has no further payment to make to him.

Hitherto the allowance has been passed to him under the authorities of a certificate from the Commissioner of Police as required by Madras Government Order No 1312, Financial, dated 26 December '93.

With reference to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce, No 3646 ss dated 24 July '94 I beg to enquire how the amounts already drawn by Mr Simpson are to be adjusted.

I have the honour to be,
Your most obedient servant,
H. Harrison
Offy Accountant General.

FOR ORDERS.

I am not sure how the order in this case to be drafted: whether in some form of the same form as the accompanying draft or in that subent in the margin of it by the C.A.

I would respectfully point out that the Accountant General is not an Officer under the Govt. of Madras and that Govt. could not order any recovery to be made from him.

Would the subjoined do?

The papers submitted by the Acct. Genl show that Mr. Simpson's case was not clearly one of Indian domicile and that the late Acct. Genl & Commr of Police were reprehensibly negligent in the way in which they dealt with the case.

Had there been an Officer with the retired Govt. would have been compelled to take

I did not say so. I said "I would propose" which is a different thing. BS

Perhaps a better fulmen is worse. Let the draft made

For orders as to whether all this, which is based on H. M. W. L. I., should be said or merely Order No 340 of 17-14-97.

The Govt. considers that no recovery need in the circumstances be made from Mr. Simpson.

The Ac^t General with encls. 9.

The papers submitted by the Accountant General disclose, in the opinion of Govt., the grossest possible carelessness on the part of Mr. Rawlinson and Col. Cox, as a clever case of Indian domicile could not well be imagined. Were it not that these officers have since retired the Government would be disposed to order the recovery from them of the amount drawn by Mr. Simpson as exchange compensation allowance. As to Mr. Simpson the Govt considers that he is not to blame for he appears to have been reported to further notice of the matter under the circumstances Govt. considers that as Mr. Simpson was not to blame no recovery should be made from him
