PENSION DEPARTMENT.

From

The Hon. Mr. J. Stokes, I.C.S.

To

Ag. SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

Department of Finance & Commerce

Dated 5 April 1897.

SIR,

With reference to para 3 of the Government of India, Finance & Commerce Department, letter N:324, dated 22nd January 1897, I am directed to submit, for the favourable consideration of the Government of India, the accompanying application from Dhadu Bee, widow of one Ramzan Beg, praying for the continuance to her of the extraordinary pension granted to her late husband.

2. The facts of the case are as follows:—

In June 1879, one Hussain Beg, who was a 3rd Class Police constable of the Krishna Police Force, was killed in the execution of his duty during the Rampa disturbances. On his death, his father Ramzan Beg was granted an Extraordinary extraordinary family pension of Rs. 2-12-0 per mensem, under section 135 (a) of the Civil Pension Code and with reference to the letter from the Government of India N^o 338 dated 24th January 1880.

Ramzan Beg died on the 10th June 1896,
and the pension enjoyed by him consequently lapsed to Government under the provisions of clause (d)
of article 79 of the Civil Service Regulations. Shadlee Bee, his widow, now asks that the pension may be continued in her name. It is reported that she is 60 years old unable to work for her livelihood, and that she has been under the protection of her daughter and son-in-law whose means are very limited. She herself states that she has been neglected by her 3 sons who are employed elsewhere, - (1) as a sepoy in the 24th Regiment M. I.
Bangalore, (2) as a Police Constable
Penuganchipalle Station, Krishna District, & (3) as a Taluk peon, Venu Konda, respectively.

3. In view of her destitute circumstances & the fact that the pension was primarily granted for her support as much as that of her deceased husband, I am directed to commend the case to the favourable consideration of the Government of India and to request that as a special case the widow may be granted an extraordinary pension of Rupees 2/- per mensem until her death.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your most obedient servant

G. Stokes.

I think we should give a gratuity of Rs. 50 - 15-3-97 - Initialed. J.G.

This might be given as a temporary assistance, but I should prefer to continue a small pension (say Rs. 2 p. m.) to the old woman.
16-3-97. Initialed H.B.

I should prefer a pension, too, but we have no power to grant "periodical copy of Secy's note. payment running into future dates".
Why not address would consent to a larger gratuity but India. There seems to be a good case & we are afraid it would soon be taken we can always give from the old woman. Perhaps we might the gratuity - give her Rupees 100.
21/3/97 - Initialed. J.G. 18-3-97. Initialed. J.G.

Quite so - Give them Rs. 50 for the present & then address India - That is what I meant.
22-3-97 - Initialed. H.B.

Very well.
