Pension.

Communicating to the Pension Department a letter from the Accountant-General reporting that an officer who has been granted an invalid — for his inferior service of more than thirty years cannot be granted in addition a gratuity for his superior service.

No. 349, FINANCIAL, 22ND APRIL 1897.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers:—

G.O., No. 189, Pension, dated 8th March 1897.

ABSTRACT.—Granting an invalid pension to M. Narayanaswamy Naidu, late shroff, Collector's office, South Arcot, and stating that the question whether the applicant should receive gratuity for his superior service will be considered in the Financial Department.

Endt. No. 719.

Referred to the Accountant-General for remarks. It is doubtful whether the case is covered by paragraph 2 (4) of the Resolution of the Government of India read in G.O., No. 911, Financial, dated 21st November 1895.

(By Order.)

23rd March 1897.

(Signed) A. R. KNAPP,
Ag. Asst. Secretary.

From W. H. MICHAEL, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 15th April 1897, No. I.A.E.—9.

With reference to your endorsement, No. 719, dated the 23rd of March 1897, referring to me for remarks paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 189, Pension, dated the 8th idem, in which a question is raised as to whether an officer who has been granted an invalid pension of Rs. 4 a month for his inferior service amounting to more than thirty years can, as a special case, be granted a gratuity also for his superior service, I have the honour to invite attention to article 1005 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations, and to forward herewith a copy of the letter from the Government of India (Department of Finance and Commerce), No. 2994-P., dated the 29th June 1895, to the address of the Comptroller, India Treasuries, Calcutta, which lays down that, in a case like the present, nothing but a pension in the inferior scale is admissible under the rules contained in the Civil Service Regulations.

2. I would add that, in my opinion, the case under reference cannot be brought under paragraph 2 (4) of the Resolution of the Government of India, No. 5102-Ex., dated the 25th October 1895, embodied in G.O., No. 911, Financial, dated 21st November 1895, as the grant of a separate gratuity for the applicant's superior service would be contrary to the rules contained in the Civil Service Regulations and would require the sanction of the Secretary of State.

ENCLOSURES.

From R. NATHAN, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department (Pensions and Gratuities), to the Comptroller, India Treasuries, dated Simla, 29th June 1895, No. 2994-P.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. P.N.—128, dated 16th May 1895, in which you inquire whether an applicant for pension who has rendered thirty years' qualifying service in the inferior scale in addition to qualifying service for nine years in the superior scale should receive a pension or a gratuity for the inferior portion of the service in addition to the gratuity admissible for the superior portion.

No. 349, FINANCIAL, 22ND APRIL 1897.

2. In reply, I am to say that the applicant in the case described should be granted a pension only under article 436 (a), Civil Service Regulations. If the provisions of article 436 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations were applicable to the case, the officer would be eligible for a gratuity only for the inferior portion of his service in addition to the gratuity admissible for the superior portion. But article 515 of the Civil Service Regulations lays down that an officer entitled to pension may not take a gratuity instead of pension, and as, in the present case, the applicant is eligible for a pension under article 436 (a), his case should not be dealt with under article 436 (b).

Copy, together with copy of the letter to which it is a reply, forwarded to the Comptroller and Auditor General and to all Accountants-General and Comptrollers for information.

(By Order.)

(Signed) R. NATHAN,
Offg. Under Secy. to the Govt. of India.

From the Comptroller, India Treasuries, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, dated 16th May 1895, No. P.N.—128.

I have the honour to state that the use of the term gratuity only ("and the inferior portion towards gratuity on the inferior scale") and the exclusion of the word "pension" in line 2, clause (b), article 436, of the Civil Service Regulations, makes me doubtful how to deal with the following case.

2. The applicant has thirty years' qualifying service in the inferior scale in addition to qualifying service for nine years in the superior scale, and the question which presents itself is whether he should have pension for the inferior portion of the service and not gratuity as prescribed in the above clause in addition to the gratuity for the superior portion of the service, subject to the condition prescribed by correction No. 47 of the Civil Service Regulations. I have the honour to submit the case for the decision of Government of India.

ORDER—No. 349, Financial, dated 22nd April 1897.

The Accountant-General's letter will be communicated to the Pension Department.
