Enclosures.

SIR,

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to address Government, with a view to enable me to recover the cost of carriage of a horse to and from Kumbakonam, under article 1093 Civil Service Regulations. I consider that a horse was absolutely essential to enable me to get about the town expeditiously as I had to be constantly on the move to keep the men up to their work.

2. I would at the same time request that I be permitted to draw halting allowance for the period of my stay, i.e. from the 10th. to the 27th. February, under article 1159 of the Civil Service Regulations.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W.R. Bannerman M.D.

SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith an application by Surgeon Major Bannerman, Deputy Sanitary Commissioner, for concessions under Articles 1093 and 1159 of the Civil Service Regulations. I am of opinion that the use of a horse at Kumba-as was also this Officer's presence at Kumbhakouam beyond the prescribed period of 10 days.

THE HON'BLE MR. GROSE, C.I.E.

Claim under Art: 1093, C. S. R.

FOR ORDERS.

With the first of the above currents the Sanitary Commissioner submits for favourable consideration an application from the Dy: Sanitary Commissioner to be re-imbursed, under Art: 1093, C. S. R., the cost of the carriage of a horse to and from Kumbakonam on the occasion of his journey thither in connection with the Mahamagam festival. The Dy: Sanitary Commissioner represents that a horse was absolutely essential to enable him to get about the town expeditionally as he had to be constantly on the move to keep the men on work and the Sanitary Commissioner endorses this remark. The charge appears to be admissible so far as the journey from Madras to

to Kumbakonam is concerned. But it is not clear that the Dy. Sanitary Commissioner required his horse at Madras immediately on return from Kumbakonam and it is doubtful whether this portion of the charge should be admitted.

2. The Dy. Sanitary Commissioner also preferred a claim for exemption from the operation of Art: 1159, C.S.R. but on being requested to state whether either of the conditions <sup>(a) or (b)</sup> prescribed in that article had been fulfilled, he has in C. No. 1252 withdrawn his application. It is proposed to
