(ESTABLISHED IN 1883.)

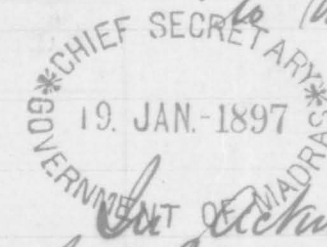

CURRENT NO 169 Bangalore City,
Bangalore, 18th January 1897.

Objects of the Institution.

1. The Mandiram.—The diffusion of theological ideas and the comparative study of Religion and Theology. The aim being, to know God in His true character, His nature and attributes, and His relation to Man and the Universe, etc.
2. The Orphanage.—Protection and education of orphan boys. Feeding of the poor and needy.
3. The Free Library.—The diffusion of useful knowledge and inculcation of such principles as would tend to promote the feelings of brotherhood between man and man.

The Chief Secretary,
to the Government of Madras.

Sir,

I am acknowledging with grateful thanks the marginally noted book, sent to me by the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras, as per Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department and order dated 5th July 1895-A. No. 593. I have the honor to request that you will be pleased to favour this Library with a copy each of such of the Volumes I to XX as have already been published of the New Imperial Series of the Archaeological Survey of India.

The books serve useful purpose, as a large number of those attending this Free Library read them with interest and benefit. Hence this earnest request, which I beg you will be pleased to comply with in the interests of the large reading public in this part of the Country.

(ESTABLISHED IN 1888.)

Bangalore City,

6th April 1897.

CHIEF SECRETARY
-7 APR. 1897

Chief Secretary
to the Government of Madras,
Madras.

Sir,

In acknowledging with thanks the receipt of your kind Memorandum No 445, dated the 19th February 1897, I have the honor to request first to excuse me for the delay that has occurred in supplying the information therein called for.

I beg to say that of the New Imperial Series of the Archaeological Survey of India, I have only received the volumes noted in the margin and not the other volumes. Of these, Volume XI was sent to the library by the Government of India, Volume XVIII by the Government of N.W.P., and Volume XXI by your Government.

You will place me and the public under deep obligations if you kindly order the supply of the remaining volumes in

Objects of the Institution.
1. The Mandiram.—The diffusion of theosophical ideas and the comparative study of Religion and Theology. The aim being, to know God in His true character, His nature and attributes, and His relation to Man and the Universe, etc.
2. The Orphanage.—Protection and education of orphan boys. Feeding of the poor and needy.
3. The Free Library.—The diffusion of useful knowledge and inculcation of such principles as would tend to promote the feelings of brotherhood between man and man.

in acknowledging the receipt of Vol XXI of the Archaeological Survey Reports - (new series -) applied for the previous volumes. (I to XX)

As the library is on the distribution list of Archaeological Survey Reports
the Govt. Press was asked if any of the previous volumes relating to this Presidency were supplied.

states that volumes XV
and XVII were forwarded
to the Library.

The Secretary was then
asked to forward a
list of the volumes he
has received.

He now mentions two
more volumes (XI and XVIII)
which were supplied by
other Govts., but omits
the two volumes ~~states~~ which
Mr. Hick states were sent from the Press.

The following relating to this Press, were published by this Govt. —

Vols. VII, VIII, IX, X, XV, XVII, XXI.

The first four volumes
were collected with

Note. Vol VI, although relating to this Press, was published by the Arch: Survey. of India & printed in England. It

already been furnished
with the other ^{two} ~~two~~.

As regards the remaining
volumes, which were published by other Govts.,
the Secretary could apply
to them ^{himself}. He has probably
already been furnished
with some of these vols.
which are not ~~forwarding~~
now in the ^{Printed} Library.
