CURRENT No. 4

OFFICE NOTE.

In forwarding a petition from certain of the pressmen & machinemmen, dated 3rd May 1897, soliciting that they may be paid for the 21 days they were under dismissal, the Sup^t. Govt. Press submits that, as their dismissal was necessitated by their open defiance of orders on several occasions, he has no recommendation to make on their behalf; he considers they are not entitled to an allowance during these days Government having approved of their dismissal, and their restoration being an act of grace on the part of Government.
