Order, Mis. No. 2737 dated 31st May 1897.

Under article 1167 of the Civil Service Regulations Mr. LeFanu as Famine Commissioner can draw a daily allowance of Rs.5, whereas a Member of the Board of Revenue is entitled to an allowance of Rs.10. His Excellency the Governor in Council considers that during his employment as Famine Commissioner Mr. LeFanu should receive the same rate of daily allowance as a Member of the Board of Revenue. The Government of India will be addressed accordingly in the Financial Department to accord sanction to the grant of the increased rate of allowance.

2. As regards the tents required by Mr. LeFanu, he will be informed that he may use the tents with the peons in charge of them of the Settlement Commissioner as hitherto leaving Mr. Winterbotham to utilize for the present the tents of the other Commissioners.

Letter No. 456 of 5th June 1917

To the Secretary to the Government of India,

Revenue and Commerce Dept.

Sir,

Mr. W. J. B. LeFanu I.C.S. who was acting as a Member of the Board of Revenue during the absence of Mr. H. M. Winterbotham on furlough has been appointed as a Famine Commissioner and allowed the salary of Rs. 2933-5-4 per mensem which he drew as acting member of the Board of Revenue. Under article 1167 of the Civil Service Regulations he can draw a daily allowance of Rs. 5, whereas a Member of the Board of Revenue is entitled to an allowance of Rs. 10 per diem. Considering the special nature of the work of a Famine Commissioner, H. E. the Governor in Council is of opinion that Mr. LeFanu should be granted the same daily allowance as a Member of the Board of Revenue and I am accordingly to request that the Government of India will be pleased to sanction the increased rate of allowance to him.
