Sir,

In returning the papers received under your docket N^o 731 dated 21st April 1897 I have the honour by direction of the President to inform you that the claim of Surgeon Major C.F. Fearnside to draw travelling allowance for the third time on which he came up for examination in Malabar by the third class test may be admitted.

2. As pointed out by Surgeon Major Fearnside in his explanation N^o 353 dated 6th April 1897 the Board ruled that the papers set for his examination in January 1896 were not such as he should have been required to execute and offered to give him a special examination in lieu of the one referred to.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF PRISONS, MADRAS.

Dated Cuddalore, the 29th May 1897.

From

A. G. CARDEW, Esq., M.A.,

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF PRISONS,

To

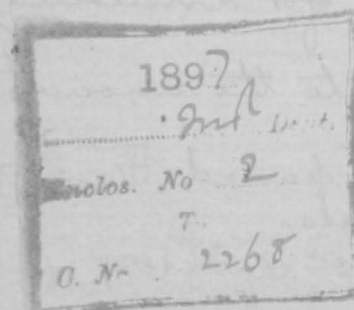

THE HONOURABLE MR. J. F. PRICE C.S.I.

CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

SIR,

Enclosures.

Surgeon Captain C. F. Fearnside while Superintendent of the Cannanore Central Jail appeared on three occasions for the Compulsory Third class Vernacular Test in Malayalam and on each of these occasions drew travelling allowances amounting to Rs. 17- for the journey from Cannanore to Tellicherry in order to attend the examination. The Accountant General has held that, under article 1226 of the Civil Service Regulations, Surgeon Captain Fearnside was not entitled to draw travelling allowance more than twice for attending this examination and has objected to the amount drawn for the 3rd examination being passed. From the enclosed copy of a Letter No. 29 dated 23rd April 1897 from the President of the Board of Examiners it will, however, be observed that the reason why Surgeon Captain Fearnside had to appear a third time was that the papers set at the second examination were not fairly and duly framed. The Board of Examiners accordingly offered to re-examine Surgeon Captain Fearnside and this fact shows that the second examination should be regarded as of no validity. It was thus through no fault of his that Surgeon Captain Fearnside was obliged to make the third journey and he is fairly entitled to the usual Travelling allowances. I accordingly request that sanction of Government may be accorded to it or if necessary, that the Government of India may be moved to admit the charge.

3. A copy of the Accountant General's audit slip No. $\frac{A.H.}{73}$ dated 30th April 1897 is enclosed.
