No. 108-G.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Fort William, the 25th March 1897.

To

THE LIEUTENANT-GENERAL COMMANDING THE FORCES, MADRAS.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your telegram No. 346-M, dated the 19th February 1897, enquiring if there is any authority, issued by the Government of India, sanctioning a general establishment of menials for the combined head-quarters offices of the Madras Command.

2. In reply, I am to explain that in Military Department letter No. 2142-C, dated the 12th November 1895, the Government of India conveyed certain remarks on the proposals contained in the correspondence ending with your letter No. M-358-C, dated the 7th August 1895, regarding the office establishments required for the head-quarters offices of the Madras Command; the intention was to sanction the establishments as finally revised in accordance with the remarks contained in Military Department letter No. 2142-C, dated the 12th November 1895, but as the scale of establishments accepted was not shown in that letter, I am now to state that the Government of India sanction provisionally, and subject to the confirmation of the Secretary of State for India, the revised establishments of clerks and menials shown in the accompanying statement for the combined head-quarters offices of the Madras Command, including the office of the Deputy Judge Advocate-General.

3. As already stated in Military Department telegram No. 2567-C, dated the 7th December 1894, the revised establishments will be worked down to gradually, by transferring present establishments and by the absorption of vacancies, &c., when possible.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Depy. Secy. to the Govt. of India.
