RESOLUTION.—With the despatches cited in the preamble memorials from certain officers, on the subject of their claims to exchange compensation allowance, were forwarded to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India. His Lordship's orders on these are contained in paragraph 8 of his despatch No. 20 (Financial), dated the 30th January 1896, which runs as follows:—

8. Memorials against the decisions of your Government have been forwarded from time to time in the letters noted in the margin.* For the most part they turn on the test of domicile, and the memorialists should be informed that I cannot entertain their appeals from the decisions which you have passed.
