In C.No.2111 the Collector of Vizagapatam asks for one lakh of for relief works under the P.W.D. The P.W.D. has no money available out of its grant of 10.41 under 33 Famine Relief. The total allotments made under the Civil portion of this grant (9.63) amount according to the statement annexed, to 7.02 up to date. To this must be added .50 sanctioned for Ganjam in papers returned from circulation today. The expenditure whether P.W.D. or Civil comes under the same major head 33 Famine Relief and there appears to be no objection to allotting the one lakh without re-appropriation.

In C.No.2207 the Collector refers to the transfer of .66 from P.W.D. to Civil under 33 Famine Relief referred to on page 12 of G.O.No.470 Finl., d/ 12th June 1897. This was not sanctioned when G.O.470 was passed as it was then considered unnecessary to interfere with the grants until revised estimates were received (para 4 of that order), but as the

the Collector is apparently uneasy about the money this sum must apparently be granted.

If the money is to come out of the Civil portion (9.63) of the grant under 33 Famine Relief the total allotment out of the Civil grant will amount to 9.18 In a recent paper re: a grant to Gangam the Hon'ble Member considered that application for P.W. grants should be submitted by the Suptg. Engineer and if it is decided to allot the present amounts the money will be placed at the disposal of the P.W.D.
