thru' the chief assistant.

Sir,

With reference to the note to Rule 12 of the Madras Hill allowance Code, I beg to request that I may be granted travelling allowance to Madras
for the members of my family noted in the margin.
(on 31st July 97)
I was obliged to send them down as one of my children got very seriously ill here, and the Asst. Surgeon who attended advised me to send the child down to Madras at once. I may mention that altho'
I have been coming up to Ootacamund with foot.
since 1879, this is the first occasion that I have been compelled to apply for this concession.

I am, Sir,
your most obedient servant,

R. S. Gons.
