Note for the Secretary to Government,
Educational and Legislative Depts.

The Budget estimates of all receipts and charges under the administrative control of the Revenue Dept. are at present dealt with in the first instance in that Dept., the draft reviews being counter-initialled in the Financial Dept. before circulation. Now that all Educational papers are dealt with by a Secretary distinct from the Secretary who is in charge of the Financial Dept., it seems desirable that a similar course should be followed in regard to the following budget estimates of the Educational Dept.

- (I) Government Examinations.
- (II) Education.
- (III) Provincial Museums.

The budget estimate under 18 General Administration "Legislative Council" should likewise be forwarded by you as Legislative Secretary to the Financial Dept.

It is not intended that the Financial Dept. should in any way be relieved of its responsibility for the final acceptance of these estimates, but as all connected papers are dealt with by a separate Secretary, the course suggested will ensure greater accuracy in the estimates.

It is, moreover, absolutely necessary that the administrative ^ddept. concerned should first have its say and pronounce its opinion upon the general adequacy or otherwise of the budget provisions in the branches under its control. ^{Our} ~~The~~ danger of financial dealing entirely with transactions controlled by other departments is that, in the absence of sufficient knowledge of the correspondence that passes therein during the year, it may happen that ~~the~~ budget provisions for necessary improvements ^{are} insufficient whilst excessive provisions ^{are} made under heads which the administrative ^d ~~dept~~ ^{might} ~~would~~ consider unimportant.
