Government sanctioning the funds applied for not having been received, I have been obliged to carry on operations and draw money without sanction.

The Board is aware from the monthly famine returns that the expenditure has far exceeded the allotments sanctioned by Government.

2. The total expenditure on gratuitous relief upto the end of the last month as per Treasury account is Rs 255,120.9-9.

In its Proceedings No. 5829 Miscellaneous dated 26th July 1897, the Board recommended an additional allotment of one lakh lakh for gratuitous relief in addition to one lakh already spent. Thereupon the following telegram was received on the 3rd Instant from the Government.
