The State Office does not, it is true, supply ~~the~~ blotting paper but it supplies blotting paper and an intelligent person can always make up a decent pad.
The stone ink-bottles cost 3 paise each but if absolutely necessary the State Office would have procured these. By stamping Spare copies with rubber stamp ink is apparently intended. This is also procured by the State Office from ^{the} contractor. It is proposed to

For Order

Please see the above mentioned docket of C. No. 1996. and "Supplies" letter in C. No. 2583.
 It ^{is} appears to be unclear for Govt. to issue rules if they are openly broken in this manner. If officers require fancy stationery articles they should procure them ^{with} ~~out~~ their own money. The blotting pad for Rs 1/8 is, it is said, clearly inadmissible & the charge should be disallowed the ink bottles & stamping ink being admitted as a special case

CMS

I don't see if one thing is admissible the other should be admitted. Is this the first time of the Govt. Hospital.
 It would perhaps be as well to point out to the S.G. that all these articles seen 50 thousand could have Office and to ~~require~~ ^{Stationary} ~~Stationary~~ from him as to ~~require~~ ^{Stationary} ~~Stationary~~ from the source
