I. Copy of letter from Mr.W.A.Beeson Marriage Registrar of Chingleputto the Treasury Deputy Collector Saidapet, 27-6-97

As you are aware I have taken charge of the records in connection with the office of Marriage Registrar of the District.

Being quite unacquainted with the routine of procedure, I write to enquire if I am entitled to travelling allowance for having travelled from Madaveram to Saidapet on the 26th. instant to take charge of the records and if so whether I can charge 8 As.per mile as I do when attending as a witness in a court case.

If travelling allowance is inadmissible I presume I can charge actual expenditure for I cannot be expected to put myself to expense in the discharge of a public duty. Please let me know to whom I should submit any bills that I may wish to send, whether to the District Magistrate to be passed or to you direct. The cost of conveying the records to Madaveram will have to be paid by some one.

An early reply will oblige

yours faithfully

Sd/ W.A.Beeson.

I make this reference as I am not able to find any authority for incurring the charge.
