No. 1574-G.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Fort William, the 15th September 1897.

To

THE COMMISSARY-GENERAL-IN-CHIEF.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 4090, dated the 22nd July 1897, submitting for orders the question whether the requirements of Commissaries-General of Commands for books, periodicals, &c., should be incorporated in the indents forwarded by Command offices or in those submitted by your office.

2. In reply, I am to state that as the Commissariat Department is an Imperial Department under the Government of India, and as each Command has a separate allotment of funds for books, &c., in which the Commissariat Department is not included, the requirements of Commissaries-General of Commands for books, periodicals, &c., cannot be incorporated in the indents of the Command offices as proposed. For these and other reasons it is not considered desirable to change the present procedure in accordance with which the requirements of the entire department under your orders should as hitherto be included in indents submitted by you.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) W. J. B. BIRD,

for Secretary to the Government of India.

Copy of the above forwarded for information to—

The Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, Bengal.
The Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, Punjab.
The Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, Madras.
The Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, Bombay.

By order,

Secretary to the Government of India.

The DEPUTY ADJUTANT GENERAL, MADRAS COMMAND,

To The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras Financial Department.

SIR,

With reference to G.O. No. R.1303 (Financial) dated 24th September 1897, I have the honor to forward herewith an extract from letter no A/CR-6556 dated 26th April 1897 to which letter no 3059 dated 3rd August 1897 from the Adjutant General in India, is a reply.

From this it will be seen that the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, was meant by the Adjutant General in India, and not the Superintendent of Stationery, Calcutta.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your obedient servant,
C. C. C. C. C.

Brig. General,
Deputy Adjutant General.

Extract from letter No. ^A ~~CR. 6556~~ dated 26th April 1897 from the Lieut. General commanding The Madras, 99 to the Adjutant General in India.

With reference to the first entry in the "Notes on the Simla Procedure Pamphlet" forwarded with your letter No. 852-C dated 20th February 1897, on the subject of the grant of Rs. 800/- allotted for the purchase of books and periodicals for the head quarters office of the Madras Command, I have the honor to request the favor of being informed as to whether it is to be understood that this grant for the Madras Command is to be in the hands of the Superintendent of Stationery, as I am still of opinion that this is the best course to adopt.

3. For the above reasons I would advocate that the budget allotment under this head for this Command should be in the hands of the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, and that any books and periodicals required for the head quarters office be obtained by me through that department so that a regular account for such payments can be maintained.
