Sir,

In forwarding herewith Audit Slip No. ^{H.B.H.} 94-P dated 30th June 1897 from the Accountant General in which he objects to pass the travelling allowance of my establishment for their journey from Madras to Ootacamund under the Hill Allowance Code I have the honour to invite attention to Public G.O. No 368 R.d/ 26th March 1896 in which I was appointed to do special duty in the Revenue Secretariat and to state that my establishment has been moving up to Ootacamund along with the Revenue Secretariat Establishments of which it should be considered to form a part. I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to pass orders authorising the Accountant General to pass the travelling allowance of my establishment under the Hill Allowance Code.

On 15.10.95, Mr Benson was placed on special duty in the Revenue Department for a period of six months, in connection with the Malabar Tenancy Bill and the General Tenancy Bill and he was allowed a temporary establishment consisting of a clerk and two peons. Subsequently Mr. Benson having been appointed as a Judge of the Madras High Court, the work was entrusted to Mr Ross and he was directed to join atootacamund last year on the ground that it was essential that he should be with Government. Mr. Ross accordingly entered on his special duty on the 21st April 1896 and the temporary establishment which worked under Mr Benson

Penson in Madras from the 20th November 1895 to 4th March 1896 was reemployed from the 21st April '96.

When this establishment went down in October last, Mr Ross solicited sanction to the grant of travelling allowance to them for their journey from Ootacamund to Madras.

The Accountant-General
to whom a reference was made thereupon stated that the case could be treated as one of transfer and that travelling allowance might be passed under article 1203 of the C.
S.R. This was accordingly sanctioned by Govt. in L.O. no 4172 D. 23.10.96.

This year Mr. Ross having come up to Ootacamund with his establishment the latter claimed and drew travelling allowance (Rs 61-14-4)

under the Hill Allowance Code instead of under

The Account-General, however, disallowed the Clerk's claim to the special rate under the Hill allowance Code and passed only the sum of Rs 26-3-6 admissible to him under the Civil Service Regulations.
In the case of the two peons he did not pass even the allowances admissible under the C.S.R. for want of special sanction of Govt under article 1216(a) of the thereof.

Mr. Ross therefore now requests that orders may be issued to the Accountant General authorizing him to pass the travelling allowance of the clerk and the two peons
Code.

Mr. Ross invites attention in which he was appointed to do special duty in the Revenue Secretariat and adds that his establishment which has been moving up to Coimbatore along with the Revenue Secretariat establishments should be treated as a part of the latter and be allowed the same concession.

The Accountant-General,
however, points out that

Code are applicable

Quarters of Govt. and that the extension of these special rates to the temporary establishment under Mr Ross would require the sanction of the Govt of India. The A.G. considers that the case can

Can be treated as one of temporary transfer and that the ordinary travelling allowance may be passed under article 1203 of the C.
S.R. as was done last year. (G.O. 4172 of 23.10.25)

The question now for consideration is whether the Govt of India should be addressed in view to the special rates laid down in the Bill Allowance Code being allowed to Mr Ross Establishment or whether the course adopted last year should be followed.

It is to be noted that the temporary establishment was first allowed for six months, that its continuance was sanctioned from time to time with the extension of Mr Ross's term of special duty, and that under G.O. No 212 of 28.4.27, it is to be retained to 1st April next. If the special rates under the Bill Allowance Code are extended to them

Cons

Why not? They have to come from hills & live on the hills when the Government arrives. Moreover I expect Mr. Ross will have been kept on duty for a long time with reference to the Madras Danaway Bill & Amendment, the general Danaway Bill, & the Codification of Revenue Laws.
He will need three clerks & peons all the time. I think this should be asked for.

So do I. Will be asked for the clerk & peons if they do not get the special rates & if so have been very inconvenient if Mr. R. & his staff had not come up.
