I beg to acknowledge receipt of your favour, marked No. 549, dated 16th July, from which I have learned that a complaint has been submitted to you by the Government Epigraphist (as per his letter No. 245, dated 30th June, extract of which has been sent to me). As I have understood, Professor G. Böhler, Vienna, has complained of his having not yet received the three undermentioned publications. In reply I beg to state that

- 1.) Hultzsch, Reports on Lankester MSS. I has been sent to Prof. Böhler on April 22. 1896,
- 2.) The same. II. on June 8. 1897,
- 3.) Indian Inscriptions. II, III. on Oct. 7. 1896.

The copies have not been sent direct — in order to save you expenses for postage — but they have been forwarded as enclosures to a — throughout reliable Vienna bookselling house I am in regular connection with. Professor G. Böhler being often absent from Vienna for a long time, the copies have been delivered to the custodian of the Vienna University, as I am assured by the above bookselling house. Professor Böhler is now staying at Zurich; I have written to him and have explained him the affair. I am sure, when he will have returned to Vienna and, when he will then make inquiries after the copies, he will find them kept by an attendant to the University.

On this occasion I beg to say that the copies of "Reports on Lanströf. Mss. II", which have been sent to me for distribution, have been distributed carefully by me to the respective Institutions, Libraries and private persons, as in former cases. By far the greatest number of copies could be sent to the addressees as enclosures without involving expenses of postage. On the other side I was obliged to send direct some copies, addressed to institutions or persons I am not in regular connection with. Thus I had to spend Rs. 19. for postage. I, therefore, have begged to put this sum, equal to Rs. 15. 4. - into the debit of your account.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Yours obediently

W. H. Harris
