From Mr. P. V. Ramaswami Raju
Barister-at-Law
Madras

For Orders.

In June '94 Mr. Ramaswami Raju forwarded a copy of Part I of his "Rajangala Mahodhyanam" & stated that the other parts "will follow in rapid succession".

Govt. subscribed for 20 copies. Half the cost Rs 500 was paid and the other half was to be paid in '95-96. (L.O. No. 702 Fmt. 7.9.94. A)

Part II was issued in December 1895. B

The author now forwards Part III and requests payment of the second instalment, Rs. 500. The work is to consist of 50 parts. C

Mr. Ramaswami Raja explains that the delay in issuing the work is due to the want of a good Devanagari Printing Press. He states that he has now purchased the requisite type & arranged for printing the work under his own supervision. Submitted that payment should be postponed until some more parts have been issued.

Payment has been made for 25 parts of which only three have been received. The application for the second 500 Rs. seems altogether premature.

Mr.

Mr. Ramaswami Raja will be informed that the first instalment of Rs 500 which was paid to him in 1894, covers the cost of 25 parts of his book of which only 3 parts have yet been received. His application for the second instalment is therefore premature. When the remaining 22 parts have been issued, the second instalment of Rs 500 will be paid, but not before.

2. Twenty Copies ^{of Part III} will be forwarded to the Director of Public Instruction and the remaining copy to the India Office. Mr. Ramaswami Raja's attention will be drawn to para 2 of G.O. No 41 Financial, dated 16th January 1896.
