G.O., Nos. 952, 953, Financial, dated 17th November 1897.

Abstract.—Stating that the total famine expenditure in this Presidency may be expected to reach a sum of 100 lakhs before the accounts are closed; and informing the Government of India of the estimate.

Read—also the following paper:—

From F. C. HARRISON, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 23rd November 1897, No. 3683.

With reference to G.O., No. 952, Financial, dated the 17th November 1897, according sanction to the adoption of an estimate of 100 lakhs for the total famine expenditure likely to be incurred in the current year (Civil 29, and Public Works Department 71), I have the honour to request that early orders may be passed allocating the increased amount among the districts. To facilitate this distribution for the Civil Department, I append a districtwar statement showing how the figures for that department have been arrived at.

2. As regards the Public Works Department estimate, the Examiner of Public Works Accounts has already forwarded his latest forecast to Government. The total therein shown is 68·31. But to this has to be added [illegible]·96 to be transferred from Civil which raises the estimate to 72·27. I have taken the latter in round figures at 73·00.

Order—No. 987, Financial, dated 26th November 1897.

With reference to the telegram from the Government of India recorded in G.O., No. 947, Financial, dated 17th November 1897, the estimate of 100 lakhs under 33. Famine Relief adopted in G.O., No. 952, Financial, dated 17th November 1897, will be distributed as follows:—

	Lakhs.
Civil Department	27
Public Works Department	73

2. The sum of 27 lakhs allotted for the Civil Department will be re-distributed as shown in the appendix to this order.
