GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—No. 993, Financial, dated 30th November 1897.

From the budget estimates which have been submitted to Government, His Excellency the Governor in Council is not satisfied that the effect of the peculiar circumstances of the current year on the finances of the province and the necessity that exists for curtailing expenditure in every possible direction have been fully comprehended by officers in whose hands the control of expenditure rests. The render it incumbent on Government to husband its resources as far as possible, and subject in view to the strictest economy being practised. Excess over budget grants be due to one or both of the causes alluded to above or to unavoidable circumstances. Departments and heads of departments will give this matter early and earnest attention and will closely scrutinize their expenditure in order to ensure that these instructions are observed.
