To

The Chief Secretary to Government,
Financial Department,
Fort Saint George.

SIR,

By Appendix A (page 19) of the Stationery Rules the supply of "blue black ink" is restricted to the Registration Department and Heads of Departments. There are two kinds of blue black ink viz: Country and English made. The former costs 9 annas a bottle and the latter (Stephens) Rs 2-2-0 if obtained locally and 2 shillings or about Rs 1-15-3 from home. The English ink has hitherto been supplied to the High Court and the Chief Secretariat only, and country made blue black ink to all other officers who indented for it.

2. On the receipt of Government Order No.730, Financial, dated 24th August 1898, the District Judge, South Canara, protested against the discontinuance of the issue of blue black ink to the Sub-Judges and Munsiffs in his district and has requested me to make a further reference to Government in consideration of the important nature of the writing work done by those officers.

5. Recently the Inspector of Schools, Western Circle, urgently demanded a supply but I was able under present rules to give him black ink powder only which he accepted under protest. I anticipate many complaints in consequence

consequence of the supply of country made blue black ink having been discontinued.

Under these circumstances, I request instructions whether a distinction may be made in the Stationery rules somewhat as follows:-

I. Country - Registration Department.
All Gazetted officers, and District Munsiffs.

II. English (Stephens) - Departments of the Secretariat and the High Court.

5. I would request the favour of early orders as the indents for 1899-1900 are now being received.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

SUPERINTENDENT OF STATIONERY,

SIR,

I have the honour to request the favour of instructions as to what officers are included in the term "Heads of Departments" as used in appendix E to the Stationery rules. I find in the foot note on page 49 that Assistant Collectors are referred to as Heads of Departments, so I am not sure whether the expression is intended to include all gazetted officers. The question has arisen on the requisitions of the following officers for coloured pencils:-

1. Principal Medical Officer, Rangoon.
2. Superintendent, Lunatic Asylum, Madras.
3. Do do , Calicut.
4. Superintendent, Government Ophthalmic Hospital, Madras.

5. Principal Medical Officer, Secunderabad.

These officers are not "Heads of Departments" in the ordinary acceptation of the term, but they seem to be quite as much so as Assistant Collectors. In the event of the supply of red and blue pencils being sanctioned to all gazetted officers, I would ask whether all non-gazetted officers-excepting accountants-are to be excluded from the supply; and if not, who are the exceptions.

2. The favour of early orders is solicited, as indents for 1899-1900 are now being passed for compliance.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. H. Atkinson

Superintendent of Stationery.
