Submitted that arts 77 & 78 of the C.A.C. do not apply to Govt Offices. Before the office note was drafted it was ascertained from the A.G's Office that the procedure prescribed in art 71 & 77 was not necessary. The A.G's Office referred us to G.O. no 149 Genl Dt 16th March 88 in which a permanent advance was sanctioned to the L & L Dept. of its own motion. As the Ed Dept sometimes permanent Advances to Officers Subordinate to it, the question was also raised whether it can not sanction a permanent advance for its own use. The code does not require that a permanent advances should be sanctioned by the Finl Dept.

But as in the case of the Edn Dept the Finl. Dept sanctioned the permanent advance the A.G's Office suggested that we should follow that precedent.
