EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

The receipts in 1897-98 were abnormally high owing to unusually large collections on account of search fees in connection with the liberal grant of State loans under the Loans Acts in the districts affected by famine. The increase due to this cause was over Rs. 2·19 lakhs as compared with 1896-97. Deducting this sum, the receipts for 1897-98 amounted to 13·11 lakhs which is still in excess of the total receipts in each of the four preceding years, and only Rs. 7,000 below the figures of 1892-93 which was the highest record year. The increase in the number of registrations which occurred in 1897-98 has continued in the current year; but the collections up to the end of August 1898 show a decline of Rs. 71,000 as compared with the corresponding period of 1897-98. This is due to the grant of State loans having been considerably restricted after the cessation of the famine. Excluding the search fees realized in connection with the grant of these loans, the collections in the last seven months of 1897-98 amounted to over 7·30 lakhs. Adding this sum to the collections during the first five months of the current year (Rs. 5·90 lakhs), the total receipts for the year may amount to 13·20 lakhs. The Revised Estimate might safely be fixed at Rs. 13 lakhs or half a lakh more than the sanctioned figure. The same amount is repeated for the Budget Estimate for 1899-1900.
