SIR,

ENCLOSURES.

I have the honour to report that one Head Constable and 6 Constables of the North Arcot District were sent to Srirangam in the Trichinopoly District for preserving peace and order during the Ekadasi festival in December 1897.

2. The men remained at Srirangam for a period of 23 days from 23rd December 1897 to 14th January 1898 and their presence was necessary in the interests of the public Service The District Magistrate of Trichinopoly has certified to this effect.

3. As the men were put to extra expense although no Camp equipage was maintained I request that Government will be pleased to permit them, under Article 1159 C.S.R. to draw halting allowance for the whole period of their stay at Srirangam.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedt Servant,
H. A. Stuart
