of Rs 4112 under 33 G for Nellore in the

1. It is not yet may be informed that the cost can be met from this provision.
The aggregate monthly cost is Rs 562

within the budget provision

Not known on what Rs 2515 were spent under 33 A to end of July. In the present case, the fact that a proposition statement is submitted shows that the cost of the establishment is to be debited at least in part to other service heads, and not wholly under 33 A.

To us

With reference to Q.M. $\frac{215}{19-9-98}$
the Board of Revenue submits a statement showing the cost of the establishments

the latter the actuals are given only ~~and~~ up to the end of June;

the year is estimated ~~only~~ at Rs 3600. There is no express answer to para 1 of the Q.M.

Secy

The cost of the temporary establishment in question presumably falls under 32.8. According to the Bds' statement 1603 Rs were spent on this head in Bellare up to June last & Rs 1997 is the estimate for the remainder of the year. The total is thus 3600 Rs. The Budget provision under this head in Bellare is Rs 4112. So the Finl Dept query on page 1 abm may safely be answered in the affirmative.

At the same time, I submit it might be pointed out to the Board that it has not given the information it was

We have sanctioned 7 1/2 lakhs. but 1 lakh still remains & the expenditure to date is only Rs 37483 according to the Sept. estimate.

Note

33 G contains the indirect famine expenditure i.e. expenditure debited to other service heads. Please see the appendix to G.O.No.29, Finl., d/14th January 1898, also paragraph 4 of G.O.No.272, Finl., d/15th March 1898, wherein it was stated that the re-appropriation of .24 lakh to meet these indirect charges debitable to service heads other than 33 FAMINE RELIEF would be made as necessity arose during the course of the year. The point in connection with the present papers is whether the budget under 3 LAND REVENUE will stand the charges of these establishments. If not, reappropriation must be made from the provision under 33 FAMINE RELIEF. Please see the additional paragraph added to the draft on C.No.2443 Finl. which will, it is thought, meet the case for the present.
