GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following paper :—

From T. HESKETH BIGGS, Esq., Accountant-General to the Government of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 5th October 1898, No. 4538.

As directed in G.O., No. 719, Financial, dated the 28th of October 1896, I have the honour to submit, in print, my report on the expenditure incurred in excess of the budget grants in 1897–98, with the statement prescribed in article 298 of the Civil Account Code and the Government of India Financial Resolution, No. 553-A., dated the 31st January 1895.

2. Two copies of my appropriation report for that year are also forwarded.

3. The statements are printed as Appendices A and B. As usual, A shows the excess expenditure in the Civil Department by major heads of account under Imperial, Provincial and Local, further details being given only when the major heads contain specially assigned Imperial and Provincial minor heads. B gives the total charges in the Civil Department and the aggregate expenditure charged against revenues in the Public Works Department including Railways, as compared with the budget grants in detail of Imperial, Provincial and Local.

4. It will be seen from the figures in Appendix B that the budget grants in the Civil Department for Imperial and Provincial were exceeded by Rs. 2,01,351 and Rs. 11,17,616 respectively, whilst the grant for the Public Works Department was exceeded by Rs. 54,56,836 in the Imperial section and resulted in a saving of Rupees 11,52,674 under Provincial. As regards Local the grants in both the departments proved too much by Rs. 4,77,728 and Rs. 23,944 respectively. The excesses in the Imperial section were each due to famine. In the Provincial section, however, while the expenditure incurred on account of famine caused an excess in the Civil Department, that excess was more than counterbalanced by a short expenditure in the Public Works Department, thus resulting in a net saving of Rs. 35,058. The expenditure on account of Famine Relief Works in the Public Works Department was entirely taken to the debit of Imperial, whereas that in the Civil Department, after charging off five lakhs to Local, was apportioned between Imperial and Provincial so as to leave Provincial Services Account with a balance of ten lakhs on the 31st March 1898.

5. The additional grants sanctioned by the Government of India under 33. Famine Relief are given in paragraph 77 of my Appropriation Report.

6. The excesses shown in Appendix A, which now require the sanction of the Government of India or of the Government of Madras, as the case may be, are the net amounts arrived at after deducting the re-appropriations already sanctioned. They amount in the aggregate to Rs. 2,17,011 as shown below :—

LETTER—from

T. HESKETH BIGGS, ESQ.,
Accountant-General to the Government of Madras,

To

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

As directed in G.O., No. 719, Financial, dated the 28th of October 1896, I have the honour to submit, in print, my report on the expenditure incurred in excess of the budget grants in 1897–98, with the statement prescribed in article 298 of the Civil Account Code and the Government of India Financial Resolution, No. 553-A., dated the 31st January 1895.

2. Two copies of my appropriation report for that year are also forwarded.

3. The statements are printed as Appendices A and B. As usual, A shows the excess expenditure in the Civil Department by major heads of account under Imperial, Provincial and Local, further details being given only when the major heads contain specially assigned Imperial and Provincial minor heads. B gives the total charges in the Civil Department and the aggregate expenditure charged against revenues in the Public Works Department including Railways, as compared with the budget grants in detail of Imperial, Provincial and Local.

4. It will be seen from the figures in Appendix B that the budget grants in the Civil Department for Imperial and Provincial were exceeded by Rs. 2,01,351 and Rs. 11,17,616 respectively, whilst the grant for the Public Works Department was exceeded by Rs. 54,56,836 in the Imperial section and resulted in a saving of Rupees 11,52,674 under Provincial. As regards Local the grants in both the departments proved too much by Rs. 4,77,728 and Rs. 23,944 respectively. The excesses in the Imperial section were each due to famine. In the Provincial section, however, while the expenditure incurred on account of famine caused an excess in the Civil Department, that excess was more than counterbalanced by a short expenditure in the Public Works Department, thus resulting in a net saving of Rs. 35,058. The expenditure on account of Famine Relief Works in the Public Works Department was entirely taken to the debit of Imperial, whereas that in the Civil Department, after charging off five lakhs to Local, was apportioned between Imperial and Provincial so as to leave Provincial Services Account with a balance of ten lakhs on the 31st March 1898.

5. The additional grants sanctioned by the Government of India under 33. Famine Relief are given in paragraph 77 of my Appropriation Report.

6. The excesses shown in Appendix A, which now require the sanction of the Government of India or of the Government of Madras, as the case may be, are the net amounts arrived at after deducting the re-appropriations already sanctioned. They amount in the aggregate to Rs. 2,17,011 as shown below:—
