Letter from R. H. Shipley Esquire, Collector of Trichinopoly, Ref. on Cur. No. 1568 of 1898, Try dated 10th October 1898.

Reference No. 1190 (Petition) dated 22nd October 1898.

Ex. 5959 R 18 11 97
The Collector of Trichinopoly reports that his late Hazur Treasurer who has since been appointed Sub-magistrate is one of those persons who were permitted by G.O. No. 868 Finl., dated 26th October 1897 to retain their deposits in the Bank of Madras as security for their appointments until the expiry of the term then current and were required after the expiry of the said term to convert the deposits into Government promissory notes. The term of deposit in the present case is reported to have come to an end on the 9th instant and the incumbency of the individual in question as Hazur Treasurer has also ceased; but it is necessary under art. 303 of the Civil Account Code that the security should remain in the hands of Government for six months longer. In these circumstances the Collector reports that instead of asking the late Hazur Treasurer to convert his deposit into into Government promissory notes, which would put Government to the expense of registering a fresh bond, the old one being unsuitable for promissory notes, he has requested the Agent, Bank of Madras to renew the deposit for another period of six months. The Board recommends the confirmation of the Collector's action.
