INDEX No.

OF 189 -9

ABSTRACT.

PRECIS.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. , dated the of 189 , I have the honour to inform you that on the 9th October 1898 orders were received for the Telephone H Exchange to keep open until further orders, and was not closed till the 11th at 6 P.M., when the storm signal was pulled down.

(2) As it is impossible for one man to remain continually on duty for such a length of time, it was necessary to have him relieved by other man for some portions of the time.

(3) Under these circumstances I would ask if Government will be prepared to grant any compensation for overtime, which on these occasions is not an hour or two, but one or more nights in additions to the ordinary full days work. I would propose an allowance of Rs 2/- for the operator for each night that the Exchange is kept open for storm signals.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. W. Loond

Superintendent,
Madras Division.

C. No. 3524/98

SUBJECT.

Overtime allowance to telephone clerks.

FOR ORDERS.

The Supdt. Govt. Telegraph Deptt gives an instance in which the telephone exchange had to be kept open for storm signals for two nights (from the 9th Oct 1898 to 6 P. M. on the 11th) and wishes to know if the Govt. will be prepared to grant any Compensation for overtime which on such occasions is not an hour or two, but one or more nights in addition to the full day's work. He proposes an allowance of Rs 2 for the operator for each night that the exchange is kept open for storm
signals.
