SIR,

In complying with the annual indent for Stationery for 1899-1900 received from the Special Settlement Officer, Malabar and South Canara, the Supervisors, ^{Head Classifiers} and Classifiers of the Field Establishment, the Head Writer and Head Clerk of the Party offices in the Settlement Department, were not classed as "Accountants" and were therefore not supplied with the number of black lead and coloured pencils allowed for Accountants by Appendix E of the Stationery Rules. On the representation of the Officer in charge of the Settlement Party that the employees specified above do come under "accountants" as used in the said appendix, for the supply of pencils, the matter was referred to the Board of Revenue who in their Proceedings Mis.No.6602 R.S. dated 14th November 1898 (copy enclosed for ready reference) state that the information given by the officer as regards Supervisors Head Classifiers, Head Clerks and Head Writers is correct.
