No. 4279.

Madras, 14th. November 1898.

H. A. Stuart, Esquire, I. C. S.,
~~M. HAMMICK, Esq., I. C. S.,~~

Madras,

THE Chief Secretary to Government, through the Accountant-General.

Fort Saint George.

SIR,

Enclosures.

I have the honour to report that one Inspector, two Head Constables and four constables of the South Canara District were employed on special detective duty from November 1897 in connection with the theft of a large amount of property from the Subramania temple and that they were obliged to remain in Bangalore for nearly two months, making enquiries both in the Cantonment and the City. I enclose a statement shewing the period of their absence. They were allowed daily allowance for the whole period as they were travelling almost every day from Bangalore City to Cantonment and vice versa. But the Accountant-General has disallowed daily allowance for the period after the first ten days.

2. As the men were put to extra expense after the expiration of the first ten days although no camp equipage was maintained I request that Government will, under Article 1159(b) of the Civil Service Regulations, be pleased to allow them to draw halting allowance for the whole period they were in Bangalore City and Cantonment.

3. Some Pathans were suspected to have committed the theft and to have sold some of the stolen property in Bangalore. It was in following up this clue that the police remained at Bangalore. I may add that the value of the property stolen was put at three lakhs of rupees.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedt. servant,

Douglas Robertson

Ag. Inspector-General of Police.
