EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

(a) Increase due to the absence of the permanent incumbent on a months' privilege leave.

(b) Increase due to the Professor of Physiology and Ophthalmology drawing Rs. 1,250 a month instead of Rs. 1,050.

(c) House-rent specially granted to the Fort Surgeon (Professor of Anatomy) in lieu of free quarters not now occupied.

(d) Includes an increment of Rs. 10 per mensem to the Assistant to the Professor of Hygiene.

(e) Dr. A.G. Bourne, who has been appointed as the Lecturer on General Biology by the Government of India, as a temporary measure, is paid an allowance of Rs. 1,000 only per course instead of a salary of Rs. 200 per mensem which Mr. Reynolds, his predecessor, who was not a Government servant, was in receipt of. Hence the decrease of Rs. 400 under the revised estimate.

(f) The Principal and the seven major Professors have been in receipt of exchange compensation allowance. Provision is now made for payment of exchange compensation allowance to Mr. F. Badcock, L.D.S., the Professor of Dental Surgery, pending orders on his case.

(g) The slight decrease is due to the acting arrangements made during the absence of the permanent Head Clerk, first on privilege leave and subsequently on leave on medical certificate for three months.

(h) The Accountant-General enters nearly Rs. 3 less against this item, he having omitted from his accounts the amount stated to have been recovered by the Treasury Officer, Kistna, from a Civil Medical pupil.

(i) The Accountant-General's figures are Rs. 450 and 8,529, respectively. He has apparently not debited to the accounts the pre-collegiate stipends of Civil and Madras-Burma pupils drawn in mofussil treasuries, and by the Principal on account of pupils from mofussil hospitals who joined the college on the completion of their pre-collegiate course.

* Fort Surgeon, Resident Surgeon, General Hospital, and Superintendent, Maternity Hospital, have free quarters.

† Does not get Exchange compensation allowance.

‡ See Note (3) page .

EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

(a) Increase due to the absence of the permanent incumbent on a months' privilege leave.

(b) Increase due to the Professor of Physiology and Ophthalmology drawing Rs. 1,250 a month instead of Rs. 1,050.

(c) House-rent specially granted to the Fort Surgeon (Professor of Anatomy) in lieu of free quarters not now occupied.

(d) Includes an increment of Rs. 10 per mensem to the Assistant to the Professor of Hygiene.

(e) Dr. A.G. Bourne, who has been appointed as the Lecturer on General Biology by the Government of India, as a temporary measure, is paid an allowance of Rs. 1,000 only per course instead of a salary of Rs. 200 per mensem which Mr. Reynolds, his predecessor, who was not a Government servant, was in receipt of. Hence the decrease of Rs. 400 under the revised estimate.

(f) The Principal and the seven major Professors have been in receipt of exchange compensation allowance. Provision is now made for payment of exchange compensation allowance to Mr. F. Badcock L.D.S., the Professor of Dental Surgery, who seems to be entitled to the allowance under a recent Resolution of the Government of India Communicated with G.O.B. No. 408, Educational, dated 19th September 1898.

(g) The slight decrease is due to the acting arrangements made during the absence of the permanent Head Clerk, first on privilege leave and subsequently on leave on medical certificate for three months.

(h) The Accountant General enters nearly Rs. 3 less against this item, he having omitted from his accounts the amount stated to have been recovered by the Treasury Officer, Kistna, from a Civil Medical pupil.

(i) The Accountant-General's figures are Rs. 450 and 8,529, respectively. He has apparently not debited to the accounts the pre-collegiate stipends of Civil and Madras-Burma pupils drawn in mofussil treasuries, and by the Principal on account of pupils from mofussil hospitals who joined the college on the completion of their pre-collegiate course.

(j) The estimate is based on the number of pupils of this class who are likely to be in the College during 1899-1900.

(k) The large expenditure is due to the additions to the several laboratories of the College of various instruments of precision and other articles required in connection with practical work.

(m) Refunds of College fees.

(1) Under Receipts, credit is taken for Rs 14,000 under medical college fees. This was the amount entered in the current year's budget but in the revised estimate it is reduced to Rs 13,000, while the actuals of 1897-98 were Rs 15,557.

(2) Under Expenditure, Rs 7,736 are provided for stipends of Madras Burma pupils and Rs 6140 for those of Burma pupils against Rs ~~10,000~~ & Rs 4300 both in the budget & revised estimate for the current year. Note.

It is not clear whether remark (1) of the proposed draft contemplates the revised estimate under "Medical College Fees" be raised to Rs.14,000.

2. With reference to remark (3), it would be preferable to allow the provision made in the appendix to remain separate pending final orders in January.

3. Note (c) on page 1 of the estimate refers to the provision made on account of house rent specially granted to the Fort Surgeon (Prof. of Anatomy), while in the foot-note on the same page it has is stated that the Fort Surgeon free quarters.

4. If the provision made for exchange compensation allowance to Mr. F.Badcock, L.D.S., Professor of Dental Surgery, is to be admitted pending final orders on the question, the foot note† "Does not get exchange compensation allowance" should be struck out.

5. Considering the actuals of past years (1102) the provision for "Rent, Rates and Taxes" might be reduced to 1100.

6. Details of "office expenses" and "Miscellaneous" should be called for as provided by rule 81 of the Instructions for the preparation of budget estimates. 7. The provision against the former item might be reduced to Rs.100 with reference to the actuals (Rs 84) of 1897-98.

NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

An addition has been made to para (2) of the order.

Para 1. Remark (1) of the proposed draft does not contemplate the revised Estimate under "Medical College fees" being raised to Rs 14,000 unless on receipt of the explanation called for in remark (2), it is found necessary.

Para 2. Educational depart^t has no objection, but the proposed draft was passed by the A.G. only after ascertaining that the Course prescribed therein was the one followed by the Financial Dept^t.

Para 3. The Port Surgeon is entitled to free quarters and that in lieu thereof is allowed house rent in lieu, as he does not occupy those quarters now. Perhaps the words "in lieu of free quarters" may be added at the end of note (c).

Para 4. The footnote + "does not get Exchange compensation allowance" may be struck out. But it is submitted that there is no inconsistency. The footnote is applicable to all the entries viz. budget for 1899-1900 - revised + budget for 1898-99 + accounts 1897-98. As a matter of fact also Dr. Babcock does not now get the allowance. He thought that under the new rules he is entitled to it and provision is accordingly made in the Existing year's budget. The question had however to be specially raised + settled before he can actually draw the amount.

Para 5. No objection.

Para 6. No objection. To submit.

* Fort Surgeon, Resident Surgeon, General Hospital, and Superintendent, Maternity Hospital, have free quarters.
† See Note (*) page .

EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

(a) Increase due to the absence of the permanent incumbent on a months' privilege leave.

(b) Increase due to the Professor of Physiology and Ophthalmology drawing Rs. 1,250 a month instead of Rs. 1,050.
(c) House-rent specially granted to the Fort Surgeon (Professor of Anatomy) in lieu of free quarters not now occupied.

(d) Includes an increment of Rs. 10 per mensem to the Assistant to the Professor of Hygiene.

(e) Dr. A.G. Bourne, who has been appointed as the Lecturer on General Biology by the Government of India, as a temporary measure, is paid an allowance of Rs. 1,000 only per course instead of a salary of Rs. 200 per mensem which Mr. Reynolds, his predecessor, who was not a Government servant, was in receipt of. Hence the decrease of Rs. 450 under the revised estimate.

(f) The Principal and the seven major Professors have been in receipt of exchange compensation allowance. Provision is now made for payment of exchange compensation allowance to Mr. F. Badcock, L.D.S., the Professor of Dental Surgery, who seems to be entitled to the allowance under a recent Resolution of the Government of India Communicated with G.O.R. No. 4 8, Educational, dated 19th September 1898.

(g) The slight decrease is due to the acting arrangements made during the absence of the permanent Head Clerk, first on privilege leave and subsequently on leave on medical certificate for three months.
(h) The Accountant-General enters nearly Rs. 3 less against this item, he having omitted from his accounts the amount stated to have been recovered by the Treasury Officer, Kistna, from a Civil Medical pupil.
(i) The Accountant General's figures are Rs. 450 and 8,529, respectively. He has apparently not debited to the accounts the pre-collegiate stipends of Civil and Madras-Burma pupils drawn in mofussil treasuries, and by the Principal on account of pupils from mofussil hospitals who joined the college on the completion of their pre collegiate course.

(k) The estimate is based on the number of pupils of this class who are likely to be in the College during 1899–1900.
(l) The large expenditure is due to the additions to the several laboratories of the College of various instruments of precision and other articles required in connection with practical work.

(m) Includes Rs. 102, cost of Europe Stores, debited by the Accountant-General to the Medical College after the preliminary accounts were closed.
(n) Refunds of College fees.
