My dear Anand,

It has been brought to His Excellency's attention in various ways that a considerable difference exists in regard to the extradition rules applicable to the Presidency, & that District Magistrates are, therefore, liable to make mistakes in dealing with the case of extradited, or extraditable persons. His Excellency, therefore, thinks that it would be a good plan that your office should draw up a memorandum, laying out in clear detail the procedure which should be adopted in extradition cases to & from the

NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

The work of the J. Cs. as it is is very heavy & they have to work out of office hours to keep abreast of it. The preparation of an elaborate memorandum such as that contemplated in the P. Secy's D. O. (attached) involves considerable labor & time. There are numerous papers on this subject in P.O. & in J.O., & the indexes & tables of over 25 years have to be gone through. A large mass of papers has to be collected, & various statutes, Acts & other books have to be studied. It would thus appear that the compilation of the proposed memoranda will itself occupy the time of a clerk for about 3 months.
Having regard to the nature of the present work of the J. Cs. it is subd. that it is impossible for them to do this special job in addition to their own

Note.

The proposal to employ a clerk on Rs 125 per mensem for a period of two months in the preparation of the extradition manual is approved in notes in G.O. No. 884, Judicial, of 7.6.98. The clerk has entered upon his duties from the 1st instant. Formal order in the Financial Dept. of Govt. should issue to the Asst. Secy. sanctioning the appointment to enable him to pass the clerk's pay and travelling allowance. A proposition statement in duplicate is accordingly submitted for Chief Secy's signature. The P.S. will be despatched to the P.S. with the following
