Read the following paper:—

Under 18 H GENERAL ADMINISTRATION CIVIL SECRETARIATS - the Public Department and other establishments Services, though constituting one office under the Chief Secretary, are shown as two distinct sub-heads. This separation of establishments controlled by one and the same officer has produced and continues to produce much inconvenience in connection with the salary and contingent bills. The Accountant-General is requested to state whether there is any objection to the establishments being combined under one head "Chief Secretariat".
