GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—again the following paper :—

G.O., Mis. Nos. 166, 167, Financial, dated 18th February 1898.

Read—the following letter from F. C. HARRISON, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 14th February 1898, No. 536.

I have the honour to state that the charges incurred in the current year on account of remittances of specie from my Currency office to other provinces were debited in my books to "18. General Administration—Currency Department—Imperial." But the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency has now pointed out that these remittances were made for treasury purposes during the late famine and that the charges incurred for conveyance should not therefore be debited to the Currency Department. In the circumstances, I have transferred them to "32. Miscellaneous—Charges for Remittance of Treasure—Imperial." The provision under the latter head, however, is insufficient to meet the additional expenditure. I therefore respectfully request that Government may be pleased to address the Government of India with reference to article 295 (b) of the Civil Account Code and obtain an additional allotment of Rs. 30,000.

Order—Mis. No. 166, Financial, dated 18th February 1898.

The Government of India will be requested to sanction an additional allotment as desired by the Accountant-General.

To the Accountant-General.

Letter—to the Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, Mis. No. 167, Financial, dated 18th February 1898.

The Accountant-General reports that the charges incurred in the current year on account of remittances of specie from the Currency office at Madras to other provinces, which were at first debited in his books to "18. General Administration—Currency Department—Imperial" have since, under the orders of the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, been transferred to "32. Miscellaneous—Charges for Remittance of Treasure—Imperial" on the ground that the remittances were made for treasury purposes during the late famine. The provision under the latter head is, however, insufficient to meet the additional expenditure, and I am therefore to request early sanction to an additional allotment of Rs. 30,000 for the purpose.

(Signed) A. T. ARUNDEL,
Chief Secretary.
