With reference to the Board of Revenue's remarks.

In its pro. No. 5586 of 16.12.97. That the Croze Salt establishment were transferred to Bengal with effect from 1st October 1897, the Acct. Genl is requested to arrange to transfer the expenditure <sup>(if any)</sup> booked in the Madras Accounts <sup>in the current year</sup> up to that date, through his exchange accounts with Bengal, as the charges are not included either in the <sup>present</sup> Provincial Contract or in the Budget estimates of 1897-98.

Of course the funded Civil estimates show nil against Croze; but the actuals of the past six months may include the charges by ship - &c. as before known to A.S.
