Resolution—Mis. No. 833, dated 3rd March 1898.

With reference to G.O., No. 673, Financial, dated 25th August 1897, the Board begs to report that Deputy and Assistant Commissioners and Inspectors have each been supplied with one office date stamp. Specimen impressions of the stamps supplied are enclosed. These stamps are necessary and should not be dispensed with.

2. Brass seals, &c., as shown in the enclosed list, have also been supplied by the Board to the officers mentioned above, but they are not shown in the Stationery Rules nor are they obtained from the Superintendent of Stationery. They are used for the most part in printing superscriptions on covers and are supplied in accordance with paragraph 55 of Circular Order II of 1893. The Board does not propose any change in regard to them.
