A sum of Rs 8000 value of cloth supplied in November 1896 was adjusted in the current year. Clothing and accoutrements were supplied to the Police and there was a high price in the market (from Rs 11 to 25 per 1000) of blank Ammunition charged by the Military Department. The reason for this increase is in under provision. A part of the provision under "Clothing" should have appeared under Ammunition & accoutrements. Cost of Ammunition & accoutrements included in the 8 months' account will be transferred to "Railway Police" at the end of the year.

Increase due to rewards sanctioned in G.O. No. 1295, Judicial, dated 6 September 1897 to the Reserve and Malappuram Special Force, Malabar.

Since October 1897 no construction of huts has been permitted with reference to G.O. No. 35, Financial, dated 9 September 1897. Necessary repairs only have been authorised to be undertaken. Hence the savings.

Increase due to famine, plague and escape of prisoners from Manjeri Subjidil, Malabar &c.
