Temporary Establishment.
General Records.

A G.O. No. 7 Nil,
8 January 198.

NOTE FOR THE C.A.

The sanction last accorded to the continuance of the temporary establishment in the General Record department, consisting of two Clerkson Rs 15 each and two attenders on Rs 8 each, for a further period of 3 months, will expire on the 31st instant.

The following records ^{have been} ~~were~~ sorted and arranged by this establishment during these 3 months.

- (1) Military department. Memorial, Memorandum, Circular and letter files and Miscellaneous books;
- (2) Revenue department. Circulation books, Number books of Mis and regular G.O.s and miscellaneous books and proceedings;
- (3) Despatch registers of all departments, extra Copies of tables of Contents

Proceedings and indexes;
(4) Parliamentary debates, selections from the records of the Bombay, Madras and India Governments and other miscellaneous books (sorted and listed for the Chief Secretariat Library);

(5) News papers, journals, foreign Gazettes, and Parliamentary papers (sorted and arranged for Connemara Library);

(6) Extra Copies of News papers and Parliamentary blue books (sorted for sale and destruction);

(7) Military department lodged papers, Registers of passports, Public department draft list of abstract Consultations, P. W. D. despatches, administration reports and budget estimates;

(8) Extra Copies of Legislative department Bills of the Government of

Madras;
(9) Extra Copies of Fort St. George Gazettes and their supplements (arranged with Office Copies), and
(10) Malabar, Masulipatam, Ganyam, Vizagapatam, Manila, Ludlow, Fort St. George, Fort St. David, Balambangan and Coroner's records and sundry books of the Public department.

There remains however some more work to be done. The records in the Strong Room have to be properly arranged and labelled. Some attempt was made to take this in hand, but the permanent clerk who worked at it for a short time was taken away for other work. It is proposed to put on the permanent Copyist to complete the arrangement of the Strong Room and to employ one of the temporary men to do the work of checking

He was outside the Special Tempory and was put on to the work as a temporary measure but his services could not, it was found, be spared and

SSM. should look into this carefully

records on which the former is now engaged.

(2) There is also a mass of old enclosures to current of various departments which have to be sorted and put into their proper places.

(3) District Gazettes from 1863 up to date have to be arranged.

(4) Papers of the Committee and the Special officer appointed in connection with the Local Self Government Scheme, of the Special Commissioner deputed to Rampur in 1881 and of the Religious Endowments Committee, which are at present put away in boxes, have to be sorted and arranged.

(5) A good deal of labelling work in connection with the papers already arranged and to be arranged will have to be done.

It is submitted

This work ^{has} ~~been~~ ^{will} be carried out under the personal supervision of the S. G. O.
Cus

therefore that the temporary establishment may be retained for a further period of 3 months, when it is hoped the arrangement of the old records will be complete. The usual draft order is submitted for approval.

The progress reports of the temporary establishment have been watched and the men have been kept fully engaged.

21/3/98

Submitted to the Chief Secretary. I have satisfied myself by almost daily visits to the Record room that this establishment is turning out good work. The principal work remaining to be done lies in the Banqueting Hall and as the elimination of rubbish has proceeded there various discoveries of old materials filled with unsorted records have been made. Progress has been made in the arrangement of these but there is a good deal yet to be done. I doubt whether the work remaining to be done can be ~~completed~~^{accomplished} in three months, but the position will be clearer at the end of that period.

The means of checking of records have recently been ~~trans~~ distributed among the permanent hands in the General Record Dept & the progress in this direction has been much greater during the past three months whilst the Special Establishment has been able to turn out more work in other directions. ~~However~~ The provision budget provides Rs 2000 for Record racks ^{or boxes} and the cost of the Temporary Establishment can be met by a transfer from that amount, the expenditure under that head being kept down during the year to the reduced figure.
