SIR,

in No 2387 X
8-12-97

With reference to G.O. No 982 Fin ancial dated 25th November 1897, I have the honor to request Government will be pleased to - state whether I may be considered eligible for the concession therein laid down. Government is aware that I was specially directed to devote myself to famine duty. I started on my first tour on famine duty on the 19th December 1896, and was therefore employed more than the full qualifying period of ten months.

2. I may state that I have no present intention of asking for furlough, but desire to have the favor of a decision on the subject so as to prevent any mistakes occurring in future.
