CURRENT No. 824

Office Note

C. No. 824 Int. is for orders. It refers to Mr. H.A. Stuart's claim for the conveyance of four horses on transfer from Ottacumund to Madras to join the appt. of Ag. S. G. It would, if Order is submitted, have been somewhat hard to expect Mr. Stuart to have sold his horses and replaced them at Madras for a short acting appt.

The S.G. should I think be prepared for immediate tour on taking up his appt. & for this purpose his horses would be ample. He could unless hypothesis have marched them to Madras in time for his first move.

SIR,

ENCLOSURES.

Voucher attached

I have the honour to submit for the sanction of Government an application for charges amounting to Rs.102-8 for conveyance of my horses by rail under Article 1093 Civil Service Regulations from Mettupalaiyam to Madras on transfer as acting Inspector-General of Police,

Considering the long time that the horses would take to arrive in Madras if marched by road I had to send them by rail in order that I might be ready equipped for any special emergency that may arise after assuming charge of the Department.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. A. Stuart

Ag. Inspector-General of Police.
