SUBJECT.

Civil Service Regulations, article 1159 (6). Sanction of Government sought for granting daily allowance in excess of 10 days.

CS

FOR ORDERS.

Mr. Shipley as collector of Anantapur had to write his report on the administration of famine relief in the district, but he was transferred to Trichinopoly and he completed the report there with the assistance of the Head clerk, Collector's office, Anantapur, who was sent for with the papers required for the report, to Trichinopoly. The Head clerk remained in Trichinopoly for 15 days in all, 25th Nov 1897 to 5th Dec 1897 (11 days) and 9th to 12th Dec 1897 (4 days). During the interval between these two periods, he ^{obtained} casual leave and went to Madras.

The Head clerk claims daily allowance at Rs 1-8-0 for the 15 days. The Collector

14/1/98

An anti-bure is satisfied that the head clerk was really put to extra expense after the first 10 days, in the shape of house rent &c. and the sanction of Government is sought for the grant to the head clerk for the 15 days he was detained at Tachinosty in the interests of the public service, and Article 115 of C. S. R. empowers Government to grant exemption from the 10 days limit, when it is satisfied that the pro longer stay was necessary in the interests of the public service and that the officer claiming the allowance for over 10 days was really put to extra expense by his stay after that period.

This is a case similar to that in G.O. No 336 Dated 31.3.98. and orders are solicited whether the claim may be admitted.
